Pradhosha Viratham

Pradhosha Viratham, or Pradhosham, is an important fasting day dedicated to Lord Shiva. Pradosha occurs twice in a month – on the 13th day (Trayodashi) – during the waxing moon fortnight and the other during the waning moon fortnight. The Puja and worship to Lord Shiva is done in the evening. The Pradosha period can be loosely indicated as 1.5 hours before sunset and 1 hour after sunset.

The Shiva Puranam states that one undertakes fasting on Pradhosha will be blessed with all the wealth, children, happiness and honour. The fasting and worship is specially undertaken by women who long to have children. It is said that those praying to Shiva during the auspicious time of Pradhosha will be freed from sins.

Pirathosha Viratha Puja takes place every fortnight on the Shivan Sannithi at 5:00pm

Note: Participation in the Pirathosha Viratha Puja costs $51.00 per person
